RULES GOVERNING THE UNOFFICIAL SHOW HORSE RINGS

Following a number of complaints to the EFA(WA) Show Horse Committee of Show Horse competitors taking advantage of the lack of rules governing the Unofficial Rings, the EFASHC has developed a document entitled "Rules Governing the Unofficial Ring". These rules will come into effect on December 1st, 2008 and will apply to ALL EFA affiliated clubs. In support of inexperienced competitors who may purchase official ponies/horses but wish to begin competing in the unofficial ring, the EFASHC has developed a Show Horse Downgrading Form. Competitors wishing to downgrade their horse/pony to the unofficial ring must get permission from the EFASHC by completing a Downgrading Form. Copies of the form will be available on the Show Horse Promotions website www.showhorsewa.equestrian.org.au from December 1st 2008. The EFASHC will consider each application on its merit and individuals will be advised of the outcome in writing within 4 weeks of application. Any queries regarding these rules can be forwarded to the Chair of the EFA Show Horse Committee at theresa.marshall@bigpond.com
